Gala Dinner

To all Friends and Supporters of the Congress of Union Retirees of Canada

We would like to announce that Scott Duvall will be the Guest speaker at the Gala Dinner of the Congress of Union Retirees of Canada (CURC) 13th Constitutional Convention, on Thursday, September 20th 2018 at 7 PM.

Everyone is welcome to come and join us for the evening.

Who is Scott Duvall?

Scott Duvall, NDP M.P. was first elected to Parliament in 2015.

Scott is a community leader who has lived and worked in Hamilton Mountain for two decades. In his nine years as a Hamilton City Councillor (2006-2015), Scott was a strong advocate for safer neighbourhoods with accessible sidewalks and parks, decent roads and sewers, better transit, and more affordable housing.

Before entering politics, Scott was a steelworker and President of his local union, where he helped save hundreds of good jobs and pensions at Stelwire during the bankruptcy and subsequent sale of Stelco Inc.

Scott and his wife Sherry are proud parents of three daughters and grandparents of two.

As NDP M.P. and NDP Finance critic Scott introduced a Private Member's Bill to save workers' pensions on the 150th anniversary of Canada's first Parliament in the fall of 2017.

Scott continues to work tirelessly on the inadequacy of Canada's bankruptcy and insolvency laws and the impacts on working people as part of his Campaign to Stop the Organized Theft of Workers' Pensions.

Scott will likely offer examples of stories that will highlight the use of the Companies

Creditors Arrangement Act and how it's used to allow financiers, banks, insurance companies and management to walk away with a tidy return on their investments while removing their obligations to fund worker's pensions and pay monies owed to workers.

Scott continues to fight for a Canada that works for everyone and will make sure corporations and multinationals can't steal the pensions their workers and retirees have earned.

We are sure all attendees will enjoy listening to Scott on Thursday September 20th 2018 at the Holiday Inn Toronto International Airport
